

How to Join – OCCI's Membership Fees and Application -

1. Qualification

Any companies doing business in the city of Osaka for more than six months are qualified to be members of OCCI regardless of their size or line of business.

Those companies doing business for less than six months or doing business outside the city of Osaka can be associate members of OCCI. However, associate members are neither qualified to be members of trade councils nor able to vote for the OCCI councilors.
